Center for Mental Health Services (CMHS), U.S. Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA); Rockville, Maryland.....March 1998 – February 2007

Title: Social Science Analyst (GS 14-8) within the Community Support Program Branch (CSP): Primary roles: CMHS lead for aging and for primary care integration programming; Provided scientific leadership in the conduct and management of multisite services research studies. Set priorities, developed, and managed comprehensive program of initiatives in aging and mental health services, and in consumer-operated mental health services programs, with responsibility for cultivating input from key stakeholders and communicating program goals and accomplishments to the national policy community. Provided programmatic management and technical assistance for mental health services grants and contracts, and provision of clinical, research, evaluation, and implementation expertise to grantees. Services projects spanned the spectrum of outreach, community education, prevention, direct clinical service, evaluation, community partnership building, technology transfer, interpreting the evidence base, and the comprehensive inclusion of mental health consumers and advocates in program design and execution.

Major Projects: Provided lead management, scientific, and policy oversight for two multimillion dollar, multisite randomized field studies, one in integrated primary care mental health services for older adults and one in consumer-operated peer support services for persons with severe mental illness. Advised management on policy for multisite study implementation. Served as program officer for a variety of initiatives including: two cycles of grant programming to stimulate communities to adopt evidence-based services in older adult mental health; a Geriatric Mental Health Research Center; a National Technical Assistance Center for Older Adult Mental Health Services; a Center for Implementation Science; Practice Resource Kits to help providers identify, adopt, and fund specific evidence-based practices; social marketing and media products to package and disseminate key SAMSHA products; and primary care and mental health Integration projects at both the state and national policy levels. Participated in development of SAMSHA National Registry of Evidence-Based Practices and Programs (NREPP). Projects required extensive collaboration with external agencies, particularly the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS), Department of Veterans Affairs (DVA), Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA), National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH), Administration on Aging (AOA), HHS Office on Disability, the National Association of State Mental Health and Program Directors (NASMHPD), and with private foundations.

Other Key Activities: Wrote requests for proposals, disseminated announcements, and provided technical assistance to grant applicants. Coordinated with SAMHSA Office of External Review on new programs, attended reviews, and made funding recommendations to management. Conducted site visits and provided technical assistance and direct intervention for grantees having implementation difficulties or who needed help in understanding the federal intent of projects. Coauthored, with grantees and contractors, conference presentations, journal articles, and SAMHSA-published technical reports. Collaborated with SAMHSA staff to develop strategic plan for aging programs; participated in division-level program and strategic planning. Provided policy and budget input on CMHS projects and activities. Routinely briefed executive leadership and SAMHSA's advisory councils on projects. Served on workgroups to improve internal workings of SAMHSA and to implement policy mandates, including evaluation policy, external review process improvement, GPRA performance measurement approach, and evaluability assessment of the CMHS mental health block grant program. Wrote comprehensive report for federal reviewers on CSP program performance since inception of SAMSHA in 1992. Served on multiple U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) workgroups to foster collaboration between agencies and programs. Maintained liaison with key professional and consumer organizations particularly in areas of aging, primary care, peer support, and evidence based mental health practices; made presentations to national audiences on SAMHSA initiatives. Provided input to CMHS and SAMSHA administrators on speeches, and for response to external correspondence and legislative inquiries. Served as federal reviewer on contract reviews within SAMHSA and for other federal agencies. Supervised Interns. Served as Acting Branch Chief when supervisor on leave.
