

Remembering Civil Rights Pioneer Samuel W. Tucker

--

A Conversation with Writer Stephen J. Ackerman and Alexandria Black History Museum Director Louis Hicks

--

5:30-7:00pm – Wednesday, April 6th

Virginia Tech Alexandria Center

1021 Prince Street, 3rd Floor

Open to the Public!

Discuss the life and legacies of Alexandria-born Civil Rights pioneer Samuel W. Tucker with Louis Hicks, Director of the Alexandria Black History Museum, and Stephen J. Ackerman, who has written extensively about Tucker and his role in the 1939 Alexandria Library Sit-In.

--

Co-sponsored by the Virginia Tech School of Public and International Affairs Politics and Planning Speaker Series, the Institute for Society, Culture and Environment, and the Urban Affairs and Planning Diversity Speakers' Series. For more information about the series, see: <http://www.spia.vt.edu/about/events/vtpnpseries/vtpnpseries.html>